"The LemonHouse" has all the charm and atmosphere a countryhouse should have. The house is situated on one of the small cozy squares of the village and has, at the same time, a good view. At the terrace by the entrance is a charming lemon tree. From this comes the name "The LemonHouse". 60 well utilized m<sup>2</sup> divided among sitting room, 2 rooms, bath and open kitchen with all white goods. Furthermore comes veranda and a terrace in a total area of 18 m<sup>2</sup>. The LemonHouse has just been completely renovated and all the old details of the house have been preserved. A possibility of enlargement is available as the house next door is for sale.

In Arenas you experience the true andalusian village environment. Whitewashed houses, narrow streets and hospitable people. To see the local farmer leading his mule through the streets of the village is not a rarity. Arenas has just under one thousand inhabitants and is very spanish. Arenas is located in the mountains east of Málaga but only one hour from the airport and 15 min. from town and beach. Despite its location Arenas is unspoiled and tourism is a rare phenomenon.
